

Alkan Shenyuz

Year of call: 1997 | Year of silk:

About

Alkan acts in a broad range of commercial litigation, arbitration and transaction matters. His focus includes high value commercial transactions, cross-border banking and finance, banking regulation, commodities trade disputes. Prior to the Bar, Alkan worked for Clifford Chance and has developed hands-on experience in financial services regulation and banking and finance products such as derivatives and offshore investment funds. At Clifford Chance, he advised a number of pension funds, hedge funds, private equity funds, insurance companies and institutional investors. Alkan has also advised major banks including The Royal Bank of Scotland, Morgan Stanley, Goldman Sachs and Bank of America Merrill Lynch on a range of complex disputes involving both institutional and private investors. At the height of the banking crisis in 2009, Alkan counseled banks on disputes relating to International Swaps and Derivatives Association (ISDA) contracts, structured investment transactions, off-shore investment trusts, bank insolvency, FSA/FCA regulatory breaches and anti-money laundering. Alkan is also a regular commentator on a range of international legal issues and geo-political risks in emerging markets having provided commentary for publications such as Africa Asset Management and MENA Insurance Review. More recently, Alkan has also advised on legal issues affecting fine arts and antiquities. He has also written extensively on the Elgin Marbles, the Hague Convention and the looting of antiquities in Iraq and Syria.

Practice Areas

- Art And Antiquity
- Civil Law

Languages

- English

Education

Called to the Bar, Lincolns Inn 1997

University College, London, LL.M. (International Business Law) 1996

Cases of note

Recent Work

Acting for a major US bank in a dispute with a Luxembourg hedge fund. Defending a UK bank in a claim by a private high net worth client involving financial promotions rules. Mediating a dispute between East European high net worth clients involving the sale/purchase of oil. Acting for a Middle East sovereign fund investor in a claim against US and Swiss banks. Advising a private client in respect of financial mis-selling by a UK bank. Advising on cross-border civil fraud/breach of trust proceedings in the Caribbean. Advising shareholders on breach of directors duties and asset tracing.