Email: clerks@churchcourtchambers.co.uk
Phone: 020 7936 3637

Paula Bignall

Year of call: 1989 | Year of silk:

About

Paula Bignall is a London based barrister specialising in serious crime and complex cases of family law. She is recognised as a skilled, highly experienced and resourceful advocate with well honed and sympathetic client care skills. Criminal Law Paula is regularly instructed to defend in cases involving serious violence, rape, and all types of sexual offences, large-scale fraud and dishonesty and drugs case including trafficking and production. Cases more recently defended include large-scale importation of class A drugs, conspiracy to commit fraud and robbery involving 19 defendants and hundreds of pages of cell site analysis, historic rape cases,rape cases involving victims and defendants under the age of 13, kidnapping and false imprisonment involving torture, Child neglect and also attempted murder. Family Law Paula undertakes all forms of private and public law work involving children. She has practised at all levels including the high court.

Practice Areas

- Family Law
- Criminal Law

Languages

- English

Central Court 25 Southampton Buildings London WC2A 1A