

Rajesh Pabary

Year of call: 2002

Year of silk:

About

Rajesh Pabary is an experienced practitioner who is regularly instructed to advise on and appear in a broad range of civil, criminal, white-collar criminal and immigration cases. Recognised as a resourceful negotiator and advocate. He has significant experience and success in the presentation of cases to juries and tribunals. He regularly appears on behalf of the major prosecuting authorities and on behalf of leading defence solicitors in the crown court and appellate courts. He advises and prosecutes on behalf of Trading Standards departments, the Vehicle and Service Operator Agency, SERCO and the DWP throughout the United Kingdom. In regulatory work he has a wide range of experience in the civil courts and tribunals, and in judicial review.

Member of the Honorable Society of Lincolns Inn, London

Former Co-ordinator of the Lecture Programme at Church Court Chambers [CPD accredited] (2002 to date). Providing lectures on specialist topics including the Enforcement of LGV PSC license infringements, Human Rights, Criminal Sentencing.

Panel member of the Bar Pro Bono Unit

Cases of note

Prosecution

Prosecuted on behalf of the Crown Prosecution Service

Secured convictions against defendants committing fraud, serious violence and drugs offences.

Noted as a leading Counsel in prosecutions of Trading Standards offences for Breach of Copyright, Counterfeit goods and Trademark infringements.

Prosecuted on behalf of the National Probation Service and Prison Security Services for breaches of Community and Curfew Orders imposed by the Criminal Courts.

Prosecuted benefit fraud cases on behalf of the Department for Work and Pensions.

Conducted complicated confiscation proceeding for Kent County Council.

Prosecuted tachograph fraud cases on behalf of the Vehicle and Service Operator Agency.

Defence

Developed a substantial practice representing clients in all Courts in the United Kingdom.

Trial experience includes Attempted Murder, Kidnap, Prison Riots, large scale Violent Disorder, serious Sexual Offences, Fraud, Robbery and Conspiracy to supply class A drugs

Impressive record of appeals against conviction and sentence in the Criminal Court of Appeal

Recent achievements include the successful defence of a client who was accused of a 400 million VAT fraud. An armed robbery trial that involved several defendants tracking cash in transit vans, approaching the vans with weapons and making off with cash. I also represented a defendant charged with 5 others on an indictment containing two counts of violent disorder and s.18 wounding. He was successfully acquitted after a 2 month trial.

Represented parent and grandparents in public law matters which have involved fact finding hearing relating to significant harm caused to children.

Represented husbands and wives in financial relief cases.

Represented parents in private law contact cases and cases involving applying for non-molestation orders and occupation orders.

Resolved applications for political asylum, spouse and family visas and permanent settlement.

Significant experience in cases involving Civil Rights and Human Rights abuses.

Represented clients from an expansive list of countries in Immigration Appeals hearings.

Regularly instructed on behalf of Trading Standards departments throughout the United Kingdom.

Advised on civil complaints, breaches of consumer protection legislation and breach of contract.

Successfully obtained enforcement orders against traders for infringements of domestic and European Community legislation.

Advised and appeared on behalf of HMRC in forfeiture proceedings involving substantial sums.

Advised and appeared on behalf of VOSA at public inquiries and on appeal from those inquiries with great success.

Outstanding record of favourable verdicts and settlements.