

Mazharul Mustafa

Year of call: 2008

Year of silk:

About

Mazharul specialises in the fields of immigration, nationality and asylum law. His practice encompasses the full spectrum of appeal and judicial review work. He has a particular interest in right of abode, citizenship, family and private life cases. Prior to joining chambers in 2019, Mazharul was as a solicitor-advocate specialising in immigration, nationality and asylum law with an extensive advocacy and drafting practice.

Sir Thomas More Bursary, Lincolns Inn

Lincolns Inn Denning Society

UCL Bentham Association

LLB (Hons), Brunel University

LLM, UCL

BVC, BPP Law School

LPC, BPP Law School

Higher Rights of Audience (Civil & Criminal), City Law School

Bengali

Cases of note

YM v SSHD C7/2016/3644

Secured permission on the papers to appeal to the Court of Appeal. The case concerned the interpretation of paragraph 245ZX(ha) of the Immigration Rules. Appeal allowed by consent.

R (on the application of NB & Ors) v The Upper Tribunal (IAC) CO/4056/2015

Secured permission on the papers in a Cart judicial review. The case concerned paragraph A280(f) and paragraph 301 of the Immigration Rules.