

Sara Fairclough

Year of call: 1992 | Year of silk:

About

Sara Fairclough obtained an LLB (Hons) in 1991 and completed the Bar Vocational Course, Grays Inn in 1992. She obtained LLM (Corporate & Commercial) with Merit from Kings College University, London. In 1992, Sara was admitted as a Barrister to the Bar of England & Wales. In 1999, after practising at the Bar in London, Sara joined a law firm in the British Virgin Islands and was admitted as a Barrister of Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court (British Virgin Islands). She has practiced in both the British Virgin Islands and London. Prior to joining Hunte & Co. in 2008, Sara practised in Hong Kong with another leading offshore law firm. Her primary areas of practice are Banking & Finance; Commercial and Corporate Transactions; Commercial Litigation; Cross-border disputes; and Trusts.

Practice Areas

- Business Crime
- Immigration Law
- Criminal Law
- International Law
- Regulatory And Disciplinary Law

Languages

- English