About

Anne is an associate member (Accredited Mediator) at Church Court Chambers. Second Floor Goldsmiths Buildings Temple EC4. Anne is a registered Mediator with the CMC (Civil mediation council) and holds full professional indemnity insurance.

She is a uniquely qualified full time Certified and Accredited Mediator of 8 years standing.

She is available to undertake a full range of Workplace, Civil and Commercial disputes within the UK and overseas. Anne holds a specialist interest in matters of Workplace /Employment and family business disputes. Anne is a Mediator with an unique Legal and Business background, with over 25 years experience in settling disputes, prosecutions and claims in her careers as a litigator at several London Chambers ranked LEGAL 500 firms

Anne also has additional valuable people management experience as the Managing Director of her own FSA authorised financial service regulated business, before choosing to Mediate exclusively.

These experiences provided her with excellent communication skills, insight and expertise to the tasks of problem solving.

Never afraid to reality test through tough and probing questions, whilst remaining tuned into the sensitivities of the participants. Anne is able to offer the participants a new perspective of their dispute which is focused firmly on their wider interests. Anne is highly adaptable in her approach, based on the dynamics at play in each room. Participants appreciate her strategy, speaking plainly and avoiding unnecessary jargon, she is warm, engaging and approachable which makes her particularly popular with nervous clients and in disputes of a sensitive nature.
