About

Amy has shown herself to be an able, versatile and dedicated advocate whose client care is widely recognised. Throughout her time in Chambers, Amys hard work, understanding of the law and measured approach has earned her numerous plaudits from clients and solicitors. Prior to commencing pupillage, Amy worked as a Parliamentary Researcher and as a county court advocate. During law school, Amy strengthened her experience in a variety of areas including employment law as a FRU representative and volunteering as Housing Law advisor. She also volunteered for Street Law and the Citizens Advice Bureau. This has provided her with a wealth of knowledge, particularly when dealing with vulnerable clients.
