Email: clerks@churchcourtchambers.co.uk
Phone: 020 7936 3637

Marie-Armance Renaud

Year of call: 2017 | Year of silk:

About

Marie-Armance is a dedicated and hard-working barrister committed to delivering a robust service to all her clients, whatever the case. She is passionate about justice and is well known for her excellent interpersonal skills and client care. She will always go the extra mile for those who instruct her and has considerable experience in dealing with young and vulnerable defendants, both in the Youth Court and Crown Court. Marie-Armance prides herself on being approachable and fully engaged with her instructing solicitors and applies a high standard of care to all matters in which she is instructed. She has also acted as a led junior in a number of complex conspiracy cases, with excellent feedback from Leading Counsel. Marie-Armance practices in general crime, regulatory matters, and extradition. Before coming to the bar, Marie -Armance worked as a paralegal for the CPS gaining valuable experience in the prosecution sector and interned at the UN Supreme Court Chamber where she assisted in the drafting of significant appeal judgements.

Practice Areas

- Criminal Law
- Private Prosecution
- Extradition
- Regulatory And Disciplinary Law

Languages

- French

Professional Memberships

CPS panel (Grade 1)

Languages

French

Spanish

Central Court 25 Southampton Buildings London WC2A 1A